

Eden Valley Museum Trust

Research service | Terms & Conditions

- Eden Valley Museum does not undertake any work regarding Heir Searches or any work where such work involves disputes regarding descendants of any deceased person. We will not be liable for any work undertaken whereby this has not been disclosed or mentioned from the outset.
- The copyright of all reports and documents remains with Eden Valley Museum. We do not become involved with any boundary disputes.
- Reports and documents are for the requester's sole and family use only, and may not be reproduced in any form.
- Reports and documents cannot be uploaded to the internet. This includes Ancestry family trees or a personal website without the express written permission of Eden Valley Museum.
- Use of the research room does not imply access to the archives. Documents and other materials relevant to the researcher will be retrieved from the archives prior to arrival.
- Users of the service are welcome to download the image/s sent to them and print for their own personal use only.
- Images may not be published, uploaded onto any other website, or sold, without the prior permission of Eden Valley Museum.