4 Powers

The Trust has the power to do anything which is calculated to further its objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. These powers include:

- (6) power to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities operating in furtherance of the objects or of similar charitable purposes and to exchange information and advice with them;
- (7) power to establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for all or any of the objects;
- (8) power to appoint and constitute such advisory committees as the Executive Committee may think fit;
- (9) power to do all such other lawful things as are necessary for the achievement of the objects.

5 Application of income and property

- (1) The income and property of The Trust must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.
 - (a) A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of The Trust or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of The Trust.
 - (b) A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at The Trust's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (2) None of the income or property of The Trust may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of The Trust. This does not prevent a member who is not also a charity trustee receiving:
 - (a) a benefit from The Trust as a beneficiary of The Trust;
 - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to The Trust.
- (3) Nothing in this clause shall prevent a charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 6.

6. Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons

- (1) General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

- (a) buy or receive any goods or services from The Trust on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to The Trust;

(c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, The Trust;

(d) receive any other financial benefit from The Trust;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission (“the Commission”) has been obtained. In this clause, a “financial benefit” means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

(2) Scope and powers permitting trustees’ or connected persons’ benefits

(a) A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from The Trust as a beneficiary of The Trust provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.

(b) A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to The Trust where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.

(c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a charity trustee or connected person may provide The Trust with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to The Trust by the charity trustee or connected person.

(d) A charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to The Trust at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).

(e) A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to The Trust. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.

(f) A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of The Trust on the same terms as members of the public.

(3) Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The Trust and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2)(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

(a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between The Trust and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”).

(b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.

(c) The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of The Trust to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.

(d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to The Trust.

(e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.

(f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.

(g) A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.

(4) In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:

(a) “The Trust” includes any company in which The Trust:

(i) holds more than 50% of the shares; or

(ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or

(iii) has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company;

(b) “connected person” includes any person within the definition set out in clause 30 (Interpretation);

7. Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty

(2) absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of The Trust and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).

Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

8. Liability of members to contribute to the assets of The Trust if it is wound up
